THE DRESS OF AMERICAN WOMEN.

A famous foreign man-dressmaker, who should know, has remarked that the women of America are foremost in tasteful dressing.

They are not such slaves to fashion as to wear any garment or employ any fabric or color simply because it is the mode, but as the first essential demand that their costumes shall possess the elements that will combine harmoniously with their form, complexion, and carriage, and also display fitness to the season or occasion when the garments are to be worn.

The great variety of Summer silks, light and soft, that may be advantageously used at the present season have considerable interest for ladies of taste, and the demand for them during the current month is likely to be enormous. Messrs. James McCreery & Co. have transferred large lots of such light silks as Damassé, Surah, and similar fabrics from their wholesale department to their retail counters, and now, at a time when everybody wants to buy, they have made sweeping reductions (in some cases amounting to one third the value) in the prices of these goods.

There probably was never such an opportunity as the present to buy a new dress at a low price, and it is unnecessary to dwell on the extent, variety, excellence, and beauty of the silks offered by this house, as it is no exaggeration to say that no such stock of silks is to be found in this country.

I. GENRE—II. MILITARY AND NUDE—III. LANDSCAPE, PORTRAIT, HISTORICAL SUBJECTS, AND SCULPTURE.

LES ARTISTES MODERNES.

(Eugene Montrosier.) Text handsomely printed on a tinted ground. Biographical Sketches of each Artist. With numerous cuts, head and tail pieces, specially designed for the work; with superb full-page plates of representative pictures, by the photogravure process. India-paper impressions. Part I., THE PAINTERS OF GENRE, now in course of publication.

To be completed in TWENTY WEEKLY PARTS, each Part comprising eight pages of text and two photogravures. Per Part, 75 cents.

Subscriptions for the entire Twenty Parts, comprising the first section, only received.

On the completion of the first section, the second and third sections will be proceeded with in regular course. Subscriptions to these are discretionary.

The entire work will form three large volumes impl. 8vo, with title, false title, index, etc., etc. Beautifully printed throughout on heavy paper, with a great profusion of vignettes, initial-letters, tail-pieces, etc., etc., in addition to the superb series of photogravures on India paper.

The intent of the projectors is to offer to the art-loving public a full and comprehensive survey of French art of the nineteenth century, with interesting biographical and critical notices of the artist's other works.

IN COURSE OF PUBLICATION:

L'EXPOSITION DES BEAUX-ARTS (Salon de 1881). Comprehending quarante planches en Photogravure par Goupil et Cie. With a great number of full-page fac-similes from the artists' original designs, together with a profusion of ornamental initials, head and tail pieces, etc., etc. With descriptive text by MM. Bernard, Montrosier, René Delorme, Gaston Schéfer, Marcus Vachon and others. By Subscription. In TWENTY PARTS, each containing two large photogravures from the most notable pictures, statues, etc., in the Salon, with text, etc. Price per Part, 75 cents. (Subscriptions must be for the entire work.)

To those who are familiar with the first issue of this elegant publication no effort toward a detailed description will be necessary. The same beauty of text and illustration will prevail in the new volume. All of the notable pictures and statuary, including Prix de Rome and other prize-winners, will be reproduced directly from the examples themselves by the photogravure process, and the plates carefully printed on India paper. There will be a larger selection of full-page pictures in the new volume than heretofore; and every care will be taken to render it worthy of the high praise so generally accorded by critics and art-lovers generally to the volume of 1880, the aim of the publishers being to place before the public a fitting memorial worthy of a prominent place in every gentleman's library.

L'EXPOSITION DES BEAUX-ARTS (Salon 1880). 34 full-page photogravures and a profusion of vignettes, initials, etc., etc. With biographical and descriptive text. Imp. 8vo, paper uncut, cloth, $18. Out of print in Paris.

L'ART DE LA MODE, REVUE MENSUELLE DE L'ÉLÉGANCE. Handsomely printed on heavy paper; illustrated with a great profusion of woodcuts from special designs, and four full page plates in colors, exhibiting the costumes of the day, together with the examples of other periods. Text by the best writers of the day. Issued monthly. Subscription, postpaid, per annum, $19.

The numbers, sent by mail, are carefully protected from injury. Specimen numbers sent on receipt of $1.65. The yearly issues will form two superb volumes. Royal folio, with titles, false titles, indexes, etc., and a great number of superb illustrations in black and in colors.

Fashion and Art have not been always friends, but there certainly is no reason why they should not be. One of the best features of the aesthetic dispensation of which Punch is just now making a good deal of cheap fun is that it tends to make fashion artistic as well as to make art fashionable. How easily the two can be conciliated, and with what advantage to both, may be gathered from a new and brilliant French publication, L'Art de la Mode, of which Mr. Bouton has just become the agent in this city, and which he announces that he is ready to supply to subscribers here at the same rates at which it can be procured in Paris. Certainly nothing approaching this publication, either in its scope, or in the beauty and thoroughness of its illustrations, has ever before been attempted. The letterpress is lively and entertaining, but the special feature of the publication is the reproduction in its pages of the historical fashions of the past, side by side with the "newest new things" imagined by the dressmakers and the milliners of Paris.

SCRIBNER & WELFORD'S NEW ART WORKS.

I.

OUR RIVER.

By GEORGE D. LESLIE, R.A. Illustrated, super-royal 8vo, $10.

Messrs. Scribner & Welford have arranged to supply a limited number of Mr. Leslie's "OUR RIVER,"—the book on the Thames referred to above. The drawings have been specially made by the author himself, and engraved with absolute fidelity. Those which are on full page will be printed separately on SELECTED INDIA PAPER, and mounted with an ample margin. The size of the work will be broad super-royal 8vo, with nearly 300 pages, superfine paper. The work will be issued early in June, and subscribers' names will now be received.

"Mr. G. D. LESLIE, R.A. (the son of C. R. Leslie, the American artist and friend of Washington Irving) has been too busily engaged with his forthcoming book on the Thames to finish more than one picture for the Exhibition. Mr. Leslie is an ardent lover of our beautiful river, and in an illustrated volume has set forth his impressions, artistic, historic, natural-historic, and anecdotic. Aiming to be 'gentle, yet not dull,' and 'clear,' if not 'deep,' he will tell us all about the upper reaches of the Thames, the fish, the flowers, the weeds, and the artists who have occupied them for the last thirty years."

THOMAS BEWICK.

Notes by F. G. Stephens on a Collection of Drawings and Woodcuts by Thomas Bewick, exhibited at the Fine Art Society's Rooms, 1880; also, a complete list of all works illustrated by Thomas and John Bewick, with their various editions. With thirty-two illustrations from original wood blocks. 4to, cloth, $10.

A limited number only of this work were printed for subscribers, and few remain for sale.

The Paris Salon Catalogue

For 1881. 8vo, with over 400 illustrations of the principal pictures reproduced from drawings by the artists. Price in paper, $1.25, to advance subscribers, as later supplies will be increased.

Beautiful Lace Curtains of NEW and ELEGANT Patterns, suitable for either City or Country Houses, may be leisurely examined in the Upholstery Department of

James McCreery & Co.'s

Establishment. Some of the Nottingham Curtains of antique designs are peculiarly tasteful, and among the Madras, Cluny, Brussels, Tambour, Russia, and other Laces are many novel Patterns that have not been seen before.

These, and many rich draperies that employ the element of color with high advantage for decorative purposes, are worth inspection.
